

Program Specific Outcomes (PSO):

PSO-1: Acquire comprehensive knowledge of the Indian political system, major political thinkers, and administrative frameworks.

PSO-2: Cultivate the ability to make informed decisions by critically analysing the assumptions that shape our thoughts and actions, evaluating their validity, and considering diverse perspectives when making intellectual, organisational, and personal decisions.

PSO-3: Develop skills in collaborative teamwork, effectively managing workload, and planning tasks to achieve common goals.

PSO-4: Enhance self-awareness by recognising personal strengths and weaknesses, fostering self-reflection, and practicing discipline in personal and academic endeavours.

PSO-5: Cultivate the ability to actively listen to others, mediate conflicts, and facilitate group decision-making processes toward consensus.

PSO-6: Demonstrate empathy and a commitment to social equity, fostering national development through informed awareness of issues, and actively participating in civic life, particularly through volunteering.

PSO-7: Recognise and appreciate various value systems, including one's own, and understand the moral implications of decisions, while taking responsibility for them.

PSO-8: Gain the ability to analyse and discuss the Indian Constitution and its political processes in detail.

PSO-9: Develop an understanding of political thought in the Western world, critically engaging with major political theories and ideologies.

PSO-10: Acquire the ability to describe and compare administrative processes and political thinking in both Western and Indian contexts.

PSO-11: Develop the capacity to analyse political theory and assess its contemporary relevance and impact on global civilisation.
